I recently came here with my children and had a lot of fun. You can sit at a video game table to play video games, or do what we did, which is sit at a regular table where you can access their large library of board games. Overall, the food was tasty, the service was quick, and the atmosphere perfect for families and/or gathering of friends. read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WiFi for its guests. What User doesn't like about Level One Game Pub:

Ordered chicken fingers, two with fries and one with a poutine. Fries were burnt and much of what we got were broken fry nubs. Left an unpleasant burnt taste in mouth. The poutine (side dish) had almost no gravy, and only a few curds. Not super impressed for our first visit. read more.
