So happy to see a Japanese restaurant specializing in noodles in Coquitlam. :D Been there twice already and the food was awesome. : : I don't eat fish but my bro says the sashimi is amazing. Totally recommend. : : : read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WLAN for its customers. What RayofLight doesn't like about Sho Bu Japanese Noodle:

Food quality has gone down. Cha sui and Kakuni were tough and hard, while I recall them melting in my mouth in the past, the chicken had the freezer taste which even deep frying couldn't mask. The egg was not made fresh. The soup didn't have the abundant toppings which came as a standard such as sweet corn and bamboo shoots. Maybe I am just being picky...probably won't go back in a while. Sho Bu Japanese Noodle from Coquitlam creates for you delicious sushi (e.g., Nigiri and Inside-Out), in addition to many other variations, always fresh with ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, On the menu there are also several Asian dishes. In this locale there is also an large diversity of coffee and tea specialties not to forget, Furthermore, the guests love the inventive combination of different menus with new and partially experimental ingredients - a good example of successful Asian Fusion.
