The atmosphere is what you would expect, sports bar/tap house. They have an excellent variety of beer on tap and the food was adequate. To be honest, I remember what my wife had but for the life of me I can't remember what I ate. I wasn't bad but to be fair not memorable. The service was great and welcoming. I would frequent this spot if I lived in the neighborhood. read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. WLAN is available for free. What Scott Gillingham doesn't like about The Mills Taphouse Grill:

I would lean more towards 3.5 than 3 star review. Service was good. I went just outside of busy time. Only one server but she did a good job. Canadian pizza was good. This was a really thin pizza and I liked it. No complaints here. Would order again and would try a different one as well out of curiosity. I ordered wings and fries. Wings were ok. Not my personal preference as they remind me of hooters type of wing. Sauce... read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious meals from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good selection of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. There's also crisply crunchy pizza, baked fresh using traditional methods, The barbecued food is freshly grilled here on an open flame.
