What a great place to eat, morning, noon or night. Food is always fresh and tasty. The open glass concept to watch the bakers and cooks gives this place high marks. I've been going for years and watching it's staff who are always happy, laughing and creating with great passion. They love what they do and it shows in the quality of baked goods and food they create. Amazing focaccia, bread, sandwiches, deserts, seasona... read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WLAN for its guests. What Santiago R Loaiza doesn't like about Forno Cultura: Can't believe you'd pay $14 for 2 pastries that can easily be much cheaper. I wouldn't be complaining so much about the price if the flavour was at least good. But even a $7 pastry without flavour in Toronto can't do it for me, wouldn't recommend this place to anyone. This feels like the new condos, very expensive and worthless. I have it 2 stars cuz at least the staff was great and helpful. read more.
