Tried Tapas for the first time - staff was excellent - wine was excellent - the food was mediocre and expensive. First they advise to get three dishes each - that is one too many for a normal appetite. Out of the nine dishes that we ordered, there was not one that I would be interested in having again - that does not say much for the food. We cook a lot so expect the best when we dine out - usually we are disappointe... read more.
