We've been going to this restaurant quite regularly in the last couple of years. Since it's still the same owners and the same cook, nothing much has changed with the menu except the slight increase in the prices like other eating establishment. It would be a nice touch though if they serve free tea or at least free refills of any beverage to their loyal patrons. They will get back in return bigger tips and more word... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather. What Devon B doesn't like about Pho TinTin Restaurant:

Tastes ok but the bitter taste of poor value lingers. I would of paid $4 or $5 less for my large hot and sour tofu soup up the street at Phovta (family emergency had them closed) $20 for a soup is insane, avoid this place. Came with no cutlery and no rice noodles just bean sprouts. (full side of rice noodles at Phovta) This is my second and last time going to this restaurant. No wonder it was empty. Ps....you can 't... read more. Freshly harvested mint, tasty salad, sprouts and a splash of lime combined with rice noodles and meat - all of this can be found not only during your vacation in Vietnam on the menu, but also when visiting the nearby Pho TinTin Restaurant in Nanaimo, Furthermore, the visitors love the successful combination of different menus with new and partially experimental products - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion. In addition, you can expect typical Italian cuisine with delicious classics like pizza and pasta, Furthermore, the guests of the establishment enjoy the comprehensive selection of the differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has available.
