We have never tasted Chilean food and when we went to Kensington Market in Toronto we decided to have our lunch there. We pass by many shops selling wares of all kind and many restaurants big and small. Accidentallu we located this restaurant. on first sight it did not look appealing. But once we went inside and saw the crowd we were convinced that this is the place for Chilean food. The waitresses were pleasing an... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather. What User doesn't like about Jumbo Empanadas:

Had an empanada here and the meat was all wrong. Not authentic. Every Chilean person I know does not eat here. I even had some friends that have eaten in Chilean homes and complaint that these were nothing like the chilean food they have tried. Never have gone back and never will. read more.
