Staying next door we ate here twice, both times really great reception and lovely food too. For dinner we both had the magnificent seafood chowder to start, chock full of lobster and scallops. Then Seafood Casserole and Fisherman's Platter. We had to take all the batter off the latter as didn't realise it was deep fried. Both dishes packed with tasty lobster, shrimps, scallops and all things from the sea. Breakfast w... read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also eat and drink outside. What Linda Thompson doesn't like about

Restaurant La Sagouine:

Service wasn't good. Waited long for our meals and waitress (possibly one of the managers) were not friendly. I think she was the only waitress. She didn't come back to fill our waters until after we were done and we asked her to. Took so long to get the basic service. Food was decent. read more.
