Hida is located in the Robson market, which has seen better days. It is the back corner so you will need to look for it. The noodles are made on location and is one of the best in terms of firmness and texture. Once you order the noodles, find yourself a table. This is no frills experience. But if you don't want to line up and pay more at one of the local noodle restaurants, this is a good place to go. read more.
