This is a great pub in the heart of Yellowknife. We stopped in on a Sunday and they were serving a weekend brunch. We got the egg with bacon and home fries. It was pretty good. The pub was pretty quiet at this time which was to be expected so we did miss out on the pub feel but overall it was pretty good. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about The Kilt & Castle Pub:

A place for the locals to hang out, watch some sports on the big screen tvs and have a few too many beers. Friendly staff, easy to strike up a conversation. However, they don't have their own food, but rather offer a western style menu from the Hot Pot restaurant upstairs. Six of us ordered different items, the quality of which ranged from mediocre to horrid. Should be pretty hard to mess up a grilled cheese sandwich... read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential. In this gastropub, you will find not only flavorful meals, but also a large and comprehensive selection of good beers and other alcoholic drinks that compliment the food, among the specialties of this place are particularly the Sashimi and Sashimi. The preparation of the menus is done authentically Asian, The successful fusion of different dishes with fresh and occasionally daring ingredients is highly valued by the visitors - a nice example of Asian Fusion.
