I would give it 5 stars if the owners had a bit of common sense. We walked in and no one attended to us. We took the menu and no one came to ask. I got up and told the owner what we wanted, the owner just wrote it down. He did not say anything else. In the meantime, people arrived and immediately picked up their order of takeaway food. An hour passed and at nine in the evening (closing time of the restaurant) we were... read more.

What User doesn't like about Wok-In:

Food was good, and it had that great hole in the wall fell. They have a loyal following which is always encouraging. Portions were large but overall it misses the mark and there is better food to be had elsewhere. read more.
