This restaurant looks like a take-out Chinese, but instead of Chinese food, it is African food, mainly Cameroonian. The wait was a little long, but when the food arrived it was excellent: we had a whole grilled fish with fried plantains, and "n'dole," a typical Cameroonian dish, also with fried plantains. Don't come for the style or even for the service (that was however, efficient) - but the food is worth it. read more. What Beach Resident doesn't like about Restaurant Hot Africa:

EXTREMELY RUDE women. The place itself is too gloomy and quite filthy. Expect to be waiting for a minimum of 1h at anytime you order and your order can be cancelled at the very last minute. Although the menu is limited, the food is good but still... the service is ultra horrible. I definitely do not recommend the place. read more. Various fine French meals are served in Restaurant Hot Africa from Montréal, Here, the meat is freshly grilled on an open flame.
