First, I got horrifically lost on the way to Rogers Arena and the staff and my sister who was already there helped direct me to parking. The kitchen made a meal for my sister who wasn't able to eat any of the regular menu due to allergies, and the beef dip I split with my mother was the best I've ever eaten. The bun was soft and the beef tender enough that when you dipped it you could bite the sandwich nicely without... read more.
