Ordered a Denver sandwich and a deluxe beef dip. Both were pretty good but the fries were coated and not a favourite of ours. Wish more restaurants still did homecut double fried, fries. Service was good until a party of 21 came in and then we were forgotten it seemed. We patiently waited 14 minutes to get the other waitresses attention and finally, our bill. This place could be a gem...just needs better management. read more. As a customer, you can use the WiFi of the restaurant free of charge, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What Wayne Feltman doesn't like about Huckleberry's Family Restaurant: I really liked the idea of schnitzel for breakfast but was disappointed by the reality. The first issue was my fault. To me, hashbrowns are made from shredded potatoes and chunks of potatoes are country potatoes or taters. Here, taters are tater tots, which was what we ordered, just not what we expected. They also put hollandaise sauce on schnitzel here. I gave it a try...it should be illegal. Finally, the schnitzel... read more. At Huckleberry's Family Restaurant in Invermere, there's a diverse brunch in the morning where you can eat as much as you want enjoy, Naturally, you should also taste the scrumptious burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges provided. The restaurant is however, primarily known for its hearty German dishes, which include clotted potatoes and salads served, For a snack in between, the delicious sandwiches, small salads, and other snacks are suitable.
