we thought here was dessert and it was not disappointed. this was our first visit and they recommend that we have chosen tastes that are their most popular. we went with coco jam, cookies and cream and coffee crucible. they took their time to the handmade ice cream. we thought that was glacial, but to our surprise it was creamy.

the coco marmelade was delicious and was probably our favorite. I had the coffee and it w... read more. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Sweet Tooth Ice Cream:

If you are not in a hurry then this place is worth checking out. Be prepared to wait at least 15 minutes for your ice cream. This place is horribly understaffed, feel sorry for the two ladies (probably mom and daughter) who try their best to juggle between delivery orders and walk ins. read more.
