This place is always busy. It's now at the perfect location as Costco is just down the road. The service is slow at times, but the eating area is usually clean. I wish that the portion sizes were back to what they use to be, as now a full meal doesn't seem like it's a filling size. read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about Dairy Queen Grill Chill:

absolutely disgusting! I haven't eaten dq for a while. their burgers were good when it was about almost food, but something is wrong here. that was just gum. they gave me one and I thought it was bad because they were microwaves. No. the heel was cold rubber. I think they give sausages as burgers and load more to boot. if you like overpriced sausage, go, but if you want a burger, order them ice or go somewhere else....
