very nice and charming. smaller than expected, and if they have social anxieties, they have to share a lot of space with strangers, but it makes for a very unique and funny environment. Eat portioning are okay (see picture) and it tastes great! would recommend a somewhat pricier than ordinary night. read more. What User doesn't like about Le Blossom à Sake:

The food was good but it was really expensive (I got one drink and a few sushis for around 35$ see pictures). I would not go there twice but I recommend trying it at least once for the nice experience. The tree in the middle of the place is really beautiful and the drinks were also really nice.
