the table was finished before the booked time. the waiter was great. eating was absolutely amazing. everything in the menu is a hit. the lobster was delicious and came with a delicious beside salad. unfortunately it also came with a holding of frits that covered the half of the plate. although the riddled were good, there were only too many of them. the desserts are also a hot portion right. Quaint spot in old port of Montreal. First time going. Server was very attentive and kind. Food was mid tier and definitely does not reflect well on value for dollar. Drinks were well made. I would recommend as a place to try, but for me I wouldn't go back. read more.
