I recently heard that they don't pay any of their employees, so I thought I would share my own experience. I worked here about 4 days in 2018, but they told me that the training would be 2 days long and both layers would be only about four hours long. Instead, I worked four days and all my layers surpassed four hours. they told me if after two days they still liked me that they hired me and even asked for my direct p... read more.
