My family and I love going to The Village Grocer. We used to go to their previous location years ago but once they moved to Kennedy and 16th, everything got so much better. The customer service is always great on every visit. There are lots of speciality items to choose from including beautiful flowers, plants and delicious fruits. The jelly roll is my favourite item from there. It contains sponge cake rolled in whip... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What Allen Sun doesn't like about The Village Grocer:

The Mixed Berries Jelly Roll is our family's favourite, 5 stars will be given for its flavor. However, almost every time you'll have to struggle to be tough to have the one you like, otherwise they will quickly pick one from fridge or from the row behind, which usually has cracks which means it's dried up after hours/day. Today the same thing happened, I got one with big crack without asking me to choose. Really don't... read more. If you're hungry for some fiery South American culinary arts, this is the place to be: delicious meals, cooked with fish, seafood delicacies, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, and you can try tasty American menus like Burger or Barbecue. It should not be forgotten that there is a large selection of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, A catering service offered by the restaurant allows you to eat the dishes at home or at the festival.
