This place makes amazing tea and coffee, and so many types, your nose will get tired of sniffing them all (at least they have some regular coffee beans in the back to clear your sinuses lol). They only have a few flavours of tea and coffee to order an actual drink compared to the rest of the store, but many of their best you can order.

Their icewine tea and coffee is amazing and it is a ritual for me when visiting NO... read more. What Robin Hansen doesn't like about Victoria's Cafe:

We we're at Niagara on the lake in early December. We wanted to stop for a cup of coffee. We like to support local businesses so we went to Victoria's Cafe, rather than go another half block to Starbucks. The service was slow and not...friendly as most businesses in the area are. We ordered a latte and a cappuccino. The coffee and milk in the latte were scalded. The cappuccino was made with a flavor that was very swe... read more. A visit to
