One of my favorite places for a burger and pommes because of consistency and quality. I would recommend the Cajun seasoned Pommes or ask on the page for spices. The painted milkshakes are amazing and not easy to find. They offer an option for a salad drink (for a fee), which I love and the staff are always friendly and prepare my order well. read more. What User doesn't like about Five Guys:

I have been to this Five Guys location twice and it has been a disappointment on both occasions. My order on both times were incorrectly done and because it is a takeaway order, it was too late to get it altered as I am already home. The burgers taste different too. I have tried Five Guys in London, England (Embankment branch) many many times and it blows my mind how different my food and service experience was from... read more.
