Authentic British afternoon tea that can be found in a small town in Nova Scotia. It was a pleasure with the Birkinshaw afternoon tea in this facility. We were served by the grandchild(?) from the original owners and he told us many interesting facts how the food was served. The afternoon tea came in a scratched serving plate with aromas on the bottom, scenes in the middle, and sweet cakes and pastries on the top. It... read more. What User doesn't like about Birkinshaw's Tea Room, Coffee House, And Catering:

So I came in for a freak milkshake but they said they couldn't because they were under staffed. There was only 6 people in the cafe. They were out of a bunch of scones, lasagna, and a bunch of other items. Another customer was upset because she had finished her coffee before her food even showed up. It took an hour for me to get my sandwich, which was delicious and the server was pleasant and polite which is where th... read more.
