Small local pizza place, on a recommendation from someone, we tried. The flavors, ingredients and portions were good, but I definitely didn't get the cheese train I was looking for. It wasn't the best pizza I ever had, but it wasn't bad. The interior could use a renovation/update. The employee who took my order was very pleasant; greeted us with a great smile, very helpful and polite. She told us that it would wait 1... read more. doesn't like about Pirate's Pizza Of Beaverton:

Laughably dilapidated, dishevelled small corner restaurant?! Serves vile imitation food to what looks like mainly teens. filthy, well worn and tiny casual take out diner has an open store room along front wall. food served limp and cold with meagre portions of low grade ingredients prices quite high for the low food quality read more.
