Timmy's is always a great stop and has consistent basics that are always served fast across Canada and this one is no different. Only thing I wish they had was a better washroom at this location, considering it's on the highway and people are using it as a pitstop. The bathroom was really small and cramped, but outside of that, this spot doesn't disappoint. read more. As a customer, you can use the WiFi of the establishment at no extra cost, and into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What Steve doesn't like about Tim Hortons:

So I used to frequent this location cause I worked close by but after so many times of getting my order wrong or not having items I stopped going. However, being out for a ride I stopped to fill up nearby and grab a coffee to go....I ordered a farmers wrap and coffee.....good coffee but the wrap had an overcooked hash brown in it that almost chipped a tooth and the service was a little slow(at this location the din...
