In the past few years, dim sum and eating out has become less affordable. However, this place has excellent value, prices are reasonable, and portions are large. When we went, I believe they were short staffed (like pretty much everywhere else). So I can't speak to how good service would be if fully staffed. However, it was what you'd expect with a couple of people working their butts off trying to take care of everyo... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is complimentary WiFi. What Jenny Maurer doesn't like about Phoenix Gate Chinese Cuisine Fèng Huáng Xuān Hǎi Xiān Jiǔ Jiā:

It was my first time to have Chinese dim sum lunch here. The waiting time was horrible. They don't have a system to serve their customers waiting in line at the door. The tables were tightly fitted. There were no service at all during my entire dining time. The waitress was not too friendly either. The food quality was just ok but the worse dish was the pan-fried turnip cakes. It was the worst one I ever had. It was... read more. Feeling as if you're in Hollywood once, and try the experience; that's not unusual in this stylish decorated diner. Many customers are particularly looking forward to the versatile, delicious Chinese cuisine. Furthermore, they offer you flavorful seafood menus.
