First time visit to this little gem. What may appear as a tiny place actually packs a big punch. Greeted right away as soon as you walk in. My wife and I inquired on types and sizes of fish and were shown in each case. We ordered lightly battered fish and chips. What was impressive was the fact that the effort was clearly made to lightly batter the fish. They were not over done and they were not greasy. We made a request... read more. What

Lynn Patterson doesn't like about Midland Fish Chip Seafoods:

Was the worst Fish and Chips I've ever had. Fish was ok but batter was soggy with an overpowering heavy grease taste, not like other places I've eaten that were good. Chips were small ends, flavorless and dry. Terrible lunch. We returned our food after eating some of it because we were really hungry. The server was nice and said she'd tell the owner but that did me no good after paying over 50 bucks for a lunch that... read more.
