What User likes about East Side Village: When the owners of my lifelong Chinese restaurant retired earlier this year I feared the best Kingston had to offer was bad chain restaurant food. Nooooo. My friend Mary Anne a local artist said "you must try East Side Village. Even Clark eats there". We did and I am very happy. read more. When the weather is nice you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about East Side Village:

New to Kingston. Read the reviews and was looking forward to some fine Chinese food. I was sadly disappointed. The cook should learn there are more ways to spice than pour in gobs of dried pepper flakes and seeds into every dish. I was picking my teeth after every mouthful to get rid of them. Not that there were that many mouthfuls, as the food bordered on inedible. General Tao's chicken was cooked beyond completely... read more.
