Had a great meal here sitting outside, all the dishes were brilliant, kids had a great time. We booked for 10.30 which was a little early but by the time we left it was packed read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. It's certainly always an event to be in a typical saloon and to eat; to feel like a cowboy for once with a beer and also the finger food like crispy fries, onion rings or a hearty burger, here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast. If you'd like something dessert to finish off, Teahouse in Stanley Park does not disappoint with its extensive selection of desserts, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
