I come here regularly and love it, although I'll admit some dishes can be hit or miss. My favourites are the beef chow mein, the lemon chicken, and the ginger beef. However, the mah po tofu and Mongolian beef were inedible basically just half a jar of chilli garlic sauce dumped over both. I have a good tolerance for spice, but I couldn't eat either of these dishes. The staff are always very friendly however, and the... read more. What Angie Bains doesn't like about Woon Lee Inn:

The quality of the food is not good! The portions are smaller than before. The taste is not the same. The dishes are prepared inconsistently. This place has changed and NOT for the better. Sadly Woon my family will looking for another restaurant to order from. read more. Let yourself be thrilled in Woon Lee Inn from North Vancouver by versatile, tasty Chinese cuisine that's authentically prepared in a wok, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian menus. Also, they serve you tasty seafood dishes, Furthermore, the visitors love the creative combination of different dishes with new and partially experimental products - a good example of successful Asian Fusion.
