My wife and I stopped by so she could get Newfoundland's Poutine, "The Mess". Properly made, this is French Fries topped with dressing, hamburger meat, weiners, and gravy. She said it was excellent. I had a hot beef sandwich which was good. They were also offering a Sunday Dinner (Jiggs) which looked excellent but we passed on as we were having Jiggs that evening. Good Newfoundland comfort food. Visited 4 times in 3 days with family. Food is good. Western sandwich excellent, other meals good. Service good but need to make sure meals are all delivered at the same time. But where can you go, when they don't have green peppers for the western, they go to the supermarket to get one so you have the best. Truly something special, read more. It's certainly always an event to be in a typical saloon and to consume; to feel like a cowboy for once with a beer and also the finger food like crispy fries, onion rings or a hearty burger, For a snack in between, the yummy sandwiches, small salads, and other snacks are suitable. In addition, you can order fresh prepared barbecue. You can also look forward to the typical tasty French cuisine.
