Since they were crazy busy (Friday dinner hour), there was a slide up where not every part of my picking order was on time. I was pressed for the time so they offered to work with me and immediately let me go with a reasonable substitution. I ate a lot, and that was the first time I had any problem. I don't blame them for being late, and I'll give them a lot of credit that it's so good to put me around them. So while... read more. What User doesn't like about Ches's Famous Fish And Chips:

Unfortunate but seems location is focused around takeout and skip the dishes, waited 40 mins for meal, we were only people sat at table in restaurant. No longer take order at table, place order at counter and seat yourself. Onions rings were dark and soaked with grease, dripping black oil, they were sent back. Replacement rings were not burnt but still tasted of old oil. Fish was good but fries were really dark, some... read more.
