What User likes about Vishnu's Doubles and Roti: We had a craving for chicken roti the other night. We ordered the roti for take out and brought it home. Getting right to the point, the roti was delicious - far better than some other local establishments we've tried. My wife would have preferred a little extra sauce in the roti, but we agreed the flavour and spices were done perfectly.

Went here to take some doubles to go for some friends, and after eating we all agreed that it was average. Nothing that stands out to make them amazing as some of their competition, but then nothing that makes them so bad either that will make you turn away from the place. Maybe if I am in the area again and have a craving, I will have a bite. read more.
