Balzac takes a waffle cone that is coated inside with chocolate and puts a chunk of chocolate in the bottom as a stopper for the coffee. They then add a shot of espresso and some steamed milk...you drink quickly from the cone and then eat it. I was skeptical at first, but pleasantly surprised by the taste and the fact that the coffee didn't spill all over the place. Definitely recommend you try it if you can handle e... read more. When the weather is nice you can also eat outside, and there is no-charge WiFi. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Balzac's:

I visited their Guelph location and was really impressed with the cafe...it's beautiful. One of the nicest looking shops I've been to. They really brag up their coffee as being small batch roasted with high quality packaging. I really appreciate high quality coffee but unfortunately this isn't it. They focus on roasting most of their coffee to very dark levels, which is usually a way of hiding a poor bean. They are m... read more. Balzac's from Guelph is a relaxed café, where you can have a small snack or cake with a warm coffee or a sweet chocolate,

Furthermore, the delicious treats of this restaurant sparkle not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.

Customers of the Balzac's like the original Canadian menus, In addition, the current games or races can be watched on the big TV in this sports bar, which the guests also love.
