If you happen to show up at Mijida without a reservation don't despair! This restaurant, tucked away upstairs next to the cinema, serves the same great food albeit from a limited menu. The wapiti (elk) burger is fantastic. Fish and chips dish is very generous. The layout allows extra space for kids. read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. WiFi is available for free. What User doesn't like about The Bookshelf Bistro:

Good concept. Bookstore and theatre as well as the dining area. Food was good. Coffee was average. Service was a little slow. Agree with a previous review. Bit of a hipster feel to the place. Guess just not my thing. read more. The comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to The Bookshelf Bistro even more worthwhile, It's worth mentioning that the traditional Canadian meals are well received by the customers of the establishment. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Besides, of course, the environment plays a central role, so the customers not only appreciate the delicious dishes, but also the bistro itself love.
