That a grilled chicken restaurant would serve the best chicken livers besides ones that my mom used to make! The sauces were unique and rather spicy for our taste buds but the chicken was good and juicy. Their fries were disappointing and the small portions of side order grilled veggies were undercooked. The Portugese roll was fresh and crispy and went well with the whipped butter. The custard tart was delicious! We... read more. doesn't like about Nando's:

We arrived long enough to stay and eat. They only wanted us to order to go which it defeated the entire purpose of going out to have dinner. What made us mad, was that people was waking in the door to eat with other people that was already siting there so we could have our dinner too ! Like all those people . Anyhow . I won't come back to this place. ENJOY your going home early , nando's staff read more.
