I like going here for a quick sit-down. Food is always quick and hot, with big portions. The cheesy rice balls are delicious. If you are feeling under the weather try the War Wonton soup bowl, it is very soothing and healing. If you get...a combo you get a drink and 2 spring rolls which is more than enough to fill you up. Refills at this place though are a dollar extra, and the prices can be higher than a regular fas... read more. User doesn't like about Wok Box:

Had the Kung Pao chicken noodle bowl for lunch. Mostly noodles with few vegetables and even fewer pieces of chicken. Once piece of chicken was all gristle. Everything had at-least one side burnt which made the whole dish taste like burnt frying pan. The total "meal deal" came to $13 which included a fountain drink and 2 mostly batter spring rolls with little in them. I make better at home and wont be going back. read more.
