What User likes about Cafe Presto: We were looking for a restaurant near the hotel and stumbled upon this tiny little hidden gem. There were several other Italian places on the street and all rather pricey. This cute place listed 10 entrees on a chalkboard for about $10. The charming owner welcomed us like old friends. The wine and the rolls were delicious while we waited for our food. We had the spicy spaghetti and it was also delicious. I don't unde... read more. What User doesn't like about Cafe Presto:

It was our first time the city and were in the mood for authentic Italian food. Walked into the first Italian restaurant that happened to be on the way (didn't check the reviews, unfortunately). We ordered meat lasagna, but we were served layers of dough instead. Any attempts to find meat were unsuccessful. I am not even mentioning the taste. The portion was ridiculously small for a $10 meal. The final "surprise" wa... read more.
