Located on trendy Crescent Street, L'Academie offers a good menu very reasonably priced. The service can be hot or cold depending on when you arrive. The food is much better than average and offers great value. BYOB is an added benefit and offers limited outdoor seating during the warmer months. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather. What User doesn't like about Restaurant L'Academie:

We had lunch in the sidewalk cafe area. Service started out fine but once our order was taken, it too far, far too long to get our lunches. The salads arrived in decent time and was pretty good. The entrees took forever. My husband loved his mussels in leek cream sauce but the fries were soggy and had an odd taste. My chicken paillard was basically the same green salad that I started with, plus the paillard which was... read more.
