Our first time there and we were not disappointed. We both had the pad Thai with chicken and shrimp. It was delicious and not too pricey either. The atmosphere is nice and calm. Service was very good too, even if it was a little slow, if you're in a rush this is not for you. It's meant to relax and take your time and to drink your own wine. Would still go back. We were looking for a good Thai restaurant who serves mango salad and this one does but the dressing is so overpowering that you can't taste the mango. All the food was Americanized and blend. The fried banana was overcrisped and not very good. There's a cute grocery store attached to it but it sells mostly junk food and candy. read more. The comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Thai Wai-Wai. You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Furthermore, you'll find delicious American meals, like for instance burgers and grilled meat on the menu. The magical desserts of the restaurant also shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
