What User likes about Elsie's Diner: The only time I have been there was during an Elvis concert and antique car show which was on the grounds surrounding the area. We had something simple like burgers and fries. The old era music was playing and the diner was decorated appropriately. I do not remember all the specific details because this was in June of 2014, (there is no pick in the list for this time period) but I do remember we had a good time and e... read more. What User doesn't like about Elsie's Diner:

We stopped by this local establishment in the evening for some ice cream. The decor of the place was very retro and fun but the ice cream was nothing special. There were several patrons there but only appeared to have one person working there. She acted as if our visit was an inconvenience. read more.
