What User likes about Pizza Sema:

The restaurant decor was last updated in the sixties or seventies, but you know, these are usually the places with the best food, an Pizza Sema did not disappoint. Not much english spoken here, but you can point at the menu. Try the pizza Quebecois. It was amazing, great crust, amazing toppings. You must go there. Service was prompt and cheerful. Price was HALF of what we pay in Ontario. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Pizza Sema:

It's a pizzeria type 2 for 1 .. so don't expect to have thick meat and vegetables on your pizza, but it's okay for the area. do not expect pizza like mauricia, pie-style pizza. The dough is not very thick, but they make the delivery: order at least 50 minutes in advance on weekend evenings. For a poutine accompaniment, forget that. Two times my fries were not cooked. wholesale, it fills the greasy pizza cravings but i... read more.
