Was on our way home from Algonquin Park. We knew we had hit a sweet spot. My mom always says u can tell a good diner when the windows are clean. We were a family of 5 with a young one My father loved the fish and chips says was the best he has ever had. My mom had the parmesan chicken It looked sooo good many veggies in the sauce. Will definitely make this our go to next time. read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Porterville Diner:

Over 30$ for two Cesar salads NO chicken. Two extra small KRAFT dressings on the side. Even the expensive fancy restaurants don't charge these kind of prices. The salads were horrible and if your going to charge premium prices. Use premium products. Rene's would be preferable if paying 1500 for a salad considering I could buy all that for one salad and make 8. For never being open pretty bold move. read more.
