I went to the restaurant, all the servers go by without knowing that you're here, unless you're a man. Try to get the attention of the servers and just got past. No hello, no smile, nothing. As a server and bartender itself, I get that it can be busy, but a simple hello would suffice. When my friend and friend came in, we finally got a table where the server didn't really listen. The food took forever and when it cam... read more.
