the service and the amount were excellent. the chef has a separate station for gluten-free prep. they are welcomed by the manager who is very aware of the zöliakie. I could eat almost everything on the menu and they would adapt to gluten-free. the server came constantly to make sure everything was good. this is the only restaurant I felt completely relaxed. The restaurant and staff were lovely all seemed ok when I asked questions about cross-contamination and what was safe for celiac. However, I was very ill after dinner there last night. I had the mozzarella and beet salad, GF Pasta with shrimp, ricotta and lemon and the GF cheesecake. The severity of my reaction would lead me to believe the pasta I was given was not GF. Even though when placed in front of me the serve... read more.
