New Island Sushi is one of my favourite sushi places in saskatoon. The servers are always on top of everything and very polite. Would recommend if you want to order lots of sushi along with many other options! read more.

The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Ettie Hills doesn't like about New Island Sushi:

My guest couldn't eat the sushi as the rice and whatever oil they used was rancid, He had two pieces of sushi and felt sick in his stomach and stopped eating any more. He eventually threw up 10 mins later. My meat dishes were ok, I don't eat fish. Won't be back, expensive for the poor quality of food. $47.00 for two buffett and two pops. read more. With a large selection of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat, the New Island Sushi from Corman Park prepares healthy, flavorful Japanese meals, tasty particularly are the Maki and delicacies like Inside-Out that this restaurant is known for. Dishes are prepared typically in the Asian style, Furthermore, the visitors love the inventive combination of different menus with new and partially experimental ingredients - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion.
