We went here for our second anniversary dinner. The food is excellent and the atmosphere itself is very classy. Small little restaurant so you want to make sure you have a reservation. On the pricier side, but a good place to take your date! read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about The Consulate Dining Lounge on Innis Lake:

We were there in May for my friends 40th bday. Place is gorgeous. Surroundings are calm and naturally scenic and the lake is great too. The food, however, is sub par. Our meat was COMPLETELY RAW!!!! No one could eat it. It was more than blue rare. Gross. The pasta was average and overall, would not go back. I have heard on several occasions this same thing: great place, crappy food. Until I ate their myself, I cou... read more.
