This place from the beginning is welcoming. It smells nice, there's bulk items to buy (we got cat nip and tea) little piles of stones everywhere. The staff was extremely nice and the food was delicious. We went two days in a row (because you have too) the Cesar salad was the best I've ever had! I also had the breakfast sandwich. The menu is entirely vegan which is wonderful read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather.
