The manager of the motel was quite a character with a long history of hotel management in his past and a charming outlook on life. Very personal and concerned with our comfort he even offered coffee from his kitchen outside of regular hours. The main building of the motel is multi storied and more like a B&B than a motel.

Decorated in an eclectic style with memorabilia and antiques from all over the world. Central lo... read more. When the weather is nice you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about Lakelawn Motel Cafe:

We took Violet our French bulldog and Bentley, our Boston Terrier on a trip through the maritimes. This motel is dog friendly and attached to a wonderful old building. The room was adequate and clean. Not one bit luxurious, but fine. No A/C but owner has a no outside noise after 10 policy, so it was fine. Breakfast in a charming room - food ok but part of the fruit was bordering on spoiled and part was too green. And... read more.
