Nice little doughnut shop with good ice coffee. Prices are medium but fair. Sitting is not real nice cause the area is under construction and really noisy and the chairs are plastic and uncomfortable. But I would recommend to take doughnuts and coffee and to go to the panorama park close by. Coffee and food is really good quality and really tasty! You can also see that by the waiting line. Go in the morning so that you g... read more. Read about Honey Doughnuts on Reddit and had to check it out after our Quarry Rock hike. The lineups are always immensely long especially if you go on a weekend. By the time my friend and I ordered, they only had the original honey doughnuts left. The doughnuts are massive and are packed with flavour. However, I found them to be very oily so be aware of your hands being soaked in oil. Other than that, it's a good pla... read more.
